"Yes, Fitzhugh Lee was a fine soldier, but he hasn't sense enough to be Governor of Virginia." This is among the silly "sayings" of some of the Mahone-new-issue-black-Republican managers—men whose brain in comparison with that of Fitzhugh Lee is as 0—to infinity. Whatever may have been Lee's standing at West Point that of today as a man, a citizen and a soldier places him upon a plane, to have reached which, he must possess the very highest qualities. His name and his fame are of the whole country—and the enthusiasm and ovations which greeted him at Washington last March and in New York on the occasion of Grant's funeral—in Boston and at Yorktown attest this.

All this balderdash as to Lee's mental unfitness is simply the jealousy of small minds warped by hate of all that is good and pure. Lee lives in the love of his people—not the adulation of mere political bums.

Democrats of Accomac and Northampton are you ready to do your duty on the 3rd day of November? Are you organized and ready for the contest which is to decide whether or not Mahone the outcast is to continue to exercise the power for evil which he has so long wielded? If not it behooves you to get to work. See to it that once we reach you, by all you hold sacred that every Democrat is registered. Look after every doubtful voter without delay and by acquainting him with the evils of Mahoneism, impress upon him, his duty in the present contest. The Mahone party is thoroughly organized. Money lavishly expended, promises of future reward, lying and infamous documents spread broadcast over the State have banded together his followers in a phalanx too solid to be broken and too large to be beaten, unless the good people of Virginia realize the duty of the hour and are prepared to do it.

Mahone is busy circulating incendiary documents among the negroes. The mails go loaded with his circulars to his "faithful allies." A natural sequence of the malignant appeals the Outcast is making has occurred at Williamsburg—where two negroes armed with shotguns attacked Mr. Archie Brooks, a Democrat, with the cry, "The war has begun—we are ready for it!" Mr. Brooks fortunately escaped serious injury. But none the less this devilish case of Mahoneism must be crushed. Mahone, the Outcast, has nothing to lose—but Virginia has everything. Let the Democrats of Virginia remember this and every man of them vote for Lee, Massey, and Ayres, and their county tickets.

Ohio has gone Republican by a decided majority. The bloody shirt of Sherman is indorsed by that State and he will in all probability be the Republican candidate for President in 1888—certainly he will succeed himself in the Senate. To us in Virginia the moral is clear. We must profit by this victory of vicious politics, and with greater vigor press the enemy at all points. To our enemies it is good cheer—to us it may be made most profitable if we rightly use the lesson. Then let us close up—shoulder to shoulder—and gathering new strength win. We can—and we must—"Steady! the whole brigade."

Mahone, while so venomously seeking to excite the negroes against the whites and to stir up strife to the shedding of blood, is laying his plans to capture the white counties. In a letter to the white confederates he gives the cue in words to this effect: "We will slip in a candidate on the heels of the election." This is the plan of the apostate Outcast. Take heed Democrats. Every Mahoneite—white, black and tan—will be sure to be at the polls on the 3rd of November. Do you be there also.

VIRGINIA NEWS.

"Major" Jefferson, of Wytheville, who is 76 years old, weighs 25 pounds, and is 30 inches high, will attend the Lynchburg Fair.

Virginia's population in 1880 was 880,858 whites, 631,707 negroes, making a total of 1,512,565, as against a total of 1,223,163 in 1870.

An earthquake shock of Friday night, 10th inst., was felt very sensibly in Richmond, Staunton, Farmville, Fluvanna, and other places in the State.

The President has appointed Col. Thomas Smith of Virginia, Attorney-General of the United States for New Mexico. Col. Smith, who is a son of ex-Governor Smith, although comparatively a young man, has achieved a fine reputation as a lawyer.

The Alleghany tobacco warehouse, belonging to T. M. Cunningham, containing 575 hogheads of tobacco, was destroyed at Richmond Monday night by fire. Much of this tobacco was bright and fine grades. The loss is estimated at from $40,000 to $50,000.

The Abingdon Virginian says: "Judge Ward is rapidly improving. His condition, immediately after the shooting, was considered critical, but the skill of Dr. George E. Wiley, assisted by Dr. James W. Cummings, was so effective that all doubt of his final recovery is now removed, and he is expected to be out in a short time."

It is stated by those who claim to know, that Gen. Mahone has received $20,000 by express from the North. It is understood that this money was sent to Mahone to be used in this campaign. A gentleman who has just returned from the southwestern part of the State says there are evidences that Mahone is using money in the close counties of that section.

Judge Bond, of the United States Circuit Court, in Richmond, has entered four decrees in coupon cases, restraining the treasurer of the city from levying on the plaintiffs or making any return inconsistent with the decree rendered by the court declaring in effect that taxes of plaintiff had been fully paid by the tender of coupons. Costs were awarded against the treasurer in each case.

The Supreme Court of Appeals, on Thursday of last week, granted a writ of error, in the case of Thos. J. Cluverius, convicted in the Hastings Court of Richmond, of the murder of Annie Lillian Madison. The granting of this writ does not alter the status of the case, except so far as to stay the execution of the sentence of the Hastings Court until the Court in full session can pass upon the question of a new trial.

Washington letter, 8th: The delusion from the First Congression, at District of Virginia, whose presence here was mentioned in this correspondence of yesterday, have returned to their homes. They came to see if some of the light-house, light-boat and life-saving employees in their district, men who have been offensive Mahone partisans, could not be removed and their places be filled with good and true Democrats.

R. R. Farr, Superintendent of Public Instruction, is in receipt of a letter from John Eaton, United States Commissioner of Education, announcing that the collective educational exhibit of Virginia was awarded the diploma at New Orleans Exposition. A certificate of merit was awarded the Miller Manual Labor School, of Albemarle, and honorable mention was made of the local exhibits of the Richmond city and Rockingham county schools. These exhibits were made up of drawings, maps, essays, &c.

Mr. Archer Brooks, a prominent Democrat of Williamsburg, while walking along Main street Friday night of last week was insulted by a negro, but did not notice it. Saturday morning, however, he met the negro and a difficulty ensued. The negro attempted to cut Mr. Brooks, when the latter drew a pistol and the negro went away, but soon returned accompanied by another negro, both armed with shotguns; both fired upon Mr. Brooks, one exclaiming: "The war has begun and we are ready for it." Mr. Brooks was shot in the face, but not fatally.

At the time of the fall of the Confederacy, in April, 1865 a large amount of specie was on deposit in the treasury of the State of Virginia. This money was paid out by Governor Smith to State officers for salaries, among them Judge H. Fitzhugh. Judge Fitzhugh declined to accept the money, $1,000, and paid it back into the State treasury. The United States Government brought suit to recover the money, claiming that it should have been turned over to the United States. The matter was disposed of last Thursday, the court requiring Judge Fitzhugh to pay 1 cent and the costs in the case. This was done to get the case off the docket.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

A separation between Mrs. Nellie Grant Sartoris, daughter of the late General Grant, and her husband is said to be impending.

Hon. Robert Toombs, of Georgia, is slowly but surely passing away. He has almost entirely lost his mind. He imagines himself in Congress, and in various other places.

A destructive fire occurred in London, on Thursday, destroying a number of buildings, including the famous Charterhouse building. The loss is estimated at about $15,000,000.

The long talked of explosion at Hell Gate, N. Y., took place Saturday, in the presence of thousands of spectators. As far as could be judged, the explosion was an entire success.

The President has appointed Hon. J. L. M. Curry, LL. D., of Va., Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to Spain. No better selection for this post could possibly have been made by the President.

During the month of September $2,700,000 in standard silver were put in circulation. This is the first time since the passage of the bill that the output has exceeded the coinage in any one month. Heretofore the coin has been accumulating in the mints.

Cardinal John McCloskey, the first American Cardinal, died in New York, on last Saturday morning, at 12:50 o'clock. Cardinal McCloskey was born in Brooklyn, N. Y., March 10, 1810, of Catholic parents, and from his earliest boyhood, he was trained and educated for the priesthood. He was created Cardinal March 15, 1875.

The President will go home and vote in the New York State election. The exact date of his departure has not yet, however, been fixed. It is probable that he will leave Washington on Monday, the 2nd of November, cast his ballot for Hill the following day and then return to the White House.

The artificial culture of oysters has been completely successful at the hatching station of the New York fish commission, at Cold Spring Harbor, L. I., by the superintendent, Mr. Fred. Mather, under the direction of Mr. E. G. Blackford, commissioner. The spawn and milt were taken from living oysters in July, and hatched in pans, and then placed in tanks supplied by pumps, and also in a tidal pond. Thousands of young were caught on scallop shells and are now as large as a dime. This is the first practical success on a large scale from oysters artificially impregnated and hatched.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Several bets were made in Salem last Monday, but the Democrats had to bet on 10,000 majority for Lee before they could get a Republican to "put up."

Gov. Cameron, in a recent letter having expressed the opinion that the election in Virginia was fairly conducted, has drawn a raking fire on him from his Republican friends.

Col. Beverly Tucker, makes the prediction that Lee will have not less than 15,000 majority in this State, and the Democrats will have the Legislature by not less than 15 majority.

Mr. Barbour, chairman of the Democratic Committee, is confident that the Democrats will not only elect the State ticket by a very decided majority, but will have the Legislature by a perfectly safe majority. Mr. Barbour is thoroughly informed about the canvass in every county in the State. He writes the Washington Post as follows: "Cor. Norfolk Ledger."

Some idea of the manner in which Gen. Mahone is working may be judged by the fact that it requires a horse and wagon daily to haul the campaign matter from his house to the postoffice. The expense for postage alone is heavy. The General keeps closely at home, but he is often visited by his lieutenants.—Norfolk Ledger.

Salvation Oil, the greatest cure on earth for pain, has made a most brilliant debut. Price 25 cents. Philosophers say that affairs should always be conducted with a view to the greatest good of the greatest number. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup does the greatest good to greatest number. 25 cents.

Gov. Cameron Wanted to Resign.

RICHMOND, VA., October 11.—It has leaked out here to day that the attack made by a Philadelphia paper upon Governor Cameron, charging him with disloyalty to the Republican party, so enraged the Governor that he determined to resign his office, leaving Lieutenant-Governor Lewis in the executive chair, and seek to vindicate himself by the sword, as it were, and by bringing suit against his alleged defamers. Cameron charges, it is said, Mahone instigated the attack upon him to drive him out of the party. Lieutenant-Governor Lewis has been telegraphed to come to Richmond, and is expected to night. The trouble is wholly personal, and the Republicans and Democrats seem to regard the matter as of no political importance one way or another.—New York World.

Illness of Candidate Massey.

RICHMOND, VA., Oct. 14.—Rev. John E. Massey, the Democratic nominee for Lieutenant-Governor of Virginia, is quite ill at his home in Ashlaw, in Albemarle county. Mr. Massey contracted a deep cold during his laborious canvass in the Southwest, and his physicians fear that he will not be able to take the stump again before the election.—The deepest sympathy is felt for Mr. Massey by Democrats throughout the State.—Baltimore Sun.

For any disorders of babyhood give the little sufferer at once Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup. Price 25c.

By giving your cows Day's Horse Powder, you can increase the flow of milk from 10 to 20 per cent. Use Dr. Bull's Baltimore Pill for the distress and discomfort resulting from indigestion, and be relieved at once. Do not delay.—Price 25 cents.
